

Elmer Crousore

Elmer Crousore, 76, 814 E. Gerhart St., died at 7:40 a.m. Monday. He had been in failing health for five weeks.

Born in Greentown on Oct. 27, 1885, he was the son of Joseph and Lizzie (Hamilton) Crousore.

A retired employe of Globe American, he had been a life resident of this community.

He was a member of the Bon Air Church of the Nazarene and the Stove Mounters Union.

Surviving with his wife, the former Miss Goldie E. Helton; are one daughter, Mrs. Harvey (Fern) Brantley of Kokomo; three brothers: Curtis of Hannibal, Mo., Leo of Macy, and Bryan of Kokomo; three sisters: Mrs. Gertrude Smith of Kokomo, Mrs. Anna Horoho of Sycamore and Mrs. Hazel Keeler of Winnie, Tex.; three grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; and several nephews and nieces.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the First Church of the Nazarene with the Rev. Don Scarlett and the Rev. G. W. Williams officiating. Burial will follow in Albright Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Eilers Funeral Home, 114 W. Harrison St., after 1 p.m. Tuesday.