

Mrs. Ora Johnson

Mrs. Ora Elizabeth Johnson, 85, a former resident of Hemlock, passed away at 8:10 a.m. Tuesday. She had been in failing health for the past two years.

Born on March 5, 1878, in Shelby County, she was the daughter of Lewis and Mary (Collins) Eads. She had lived in the Hemlock and Kokomo communities most of her life.

She was a member of the Hemlock Baptist Church, and the Daughters of America.

On Aug. 12, 1894, she was married to Orpheus Cage, who preceded her in death. On January 2, 1910, she married David Johnson, who also is deceased.

Surviving is one daughter, Mrs. Henry (Beulah) Stewart of Kokomo; eight grandchildren; nineteen great-grandchildren; one brother, Earl Eads of Hemlock, and several nieces and nephews. Two sons, one daughter, six brothers, and one sister, preceded her in death.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday at the Fenn Funeral Home with burial in Albright Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p.m. Wednesday.
