

Mrs. Burton Lashley

Mrs. Ruby J. Lashley, 38, Oakford, died at 5 p.m. Monday at Howard Community Hospital shortly after arrival.

Born on Aug. 5, 1924, in Kokomo, she was the daughter of Hubert and Nellie (Fording) Hood.

She was a former employe of Delco Radio Division and attended the Meridian Street Christian Church in Greentown.

Her first marriage was to Paul Parker, who preceded her in death and on June 10, 1959, she was married to Burton Lashley of Greensboro, N. C., who survives.

Surviving with the husband are two daughters, Mrs. David (Paula Jo) Reed, Indianapolis and Brenda Parker, Oakford; two sons, Richard Parker and Jeffrey Lashley, both of Oakford; four brothers, Hubert Hood, Michigan City; Russell Hood, Kokomo, Robert Hood, Sharpville, and Phillip Hood, Greentown; two sisters, Mrs. Elmer (Madora) Cook, Kokomo, and Mrs. Clarence (Jaunita) Williams, Greentown; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Fenn Funeral Home, and friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p.m. Wednesday.