

Carmen McCombs

Services for Carmen McCombs, 72, 710 S. Webster St., will be at 1 p.m. Saturday in Bon Air Church of the Nazarene with the Rev. Clyde Gunn officiating.

Burial will be in Albright Cemetery. Friends may call from 2 to 4 and 5 to 9 p.m. Friday in Ellers Mortuary. The body will lie in state one hour before services in the church.

She was killed at 5:22 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 15, 1978, when struck by a car at the intersection of Washington and Harrison streets.

Born July 11, 1906, in Orestes, she was the daughter of George and Luthera Brown. She was married in 1924 to Glen McCombs, who died in 1968.

She was a member of Bon Air Church of the Nazarene, Ladies of the Moose, Pocahontas, War Mothers, Golden Agers, Grandmothers Club and Secret Pals Club.

Surviving are four daughters, Leticha Little, Eva Dunlap and Luthera Helvig, all of Kokomo, and Wanda Koegler of Mars, Pa.; five sons, Glen "Bud" McCombs Jr. and James McCombs, both of Greentown, Robert McCombs of Sharpsville and Herman McCombs and Earl McCombs, both of Kokomo; two sisters, Lula Forsythe and Birdie Elson, both of Kokomo; three brothers, Harry and David Brown, both of Kokomo, and George Brown of Florida; and 38 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.