

Mrs. Reta Maish

Funeral services will be Monday (today) for Mrs. Reta Mae Maish, 69, Apt. F - 30, Gateway Gardens, who died in her home about 4 p.m. Friday. The Rev. Oliver Thomas will officiate at the 10:30 a.m. rites in the Beamer Methodist Church.

The daughter of David and Nancy (Newton) Stout, Mrs. Maish was born in Clinton County Jan. 10, 1895, and had lived in the Kokomo vicinity during most of her life. She was married in 1916 to Enoch Maish, who died in 1948.

A former employe of Reliance Mfg. Co., Continental Steel Corp. restaurant and St Joseph Memorial Hospital, she was a member of Beamer Methodist Church and of Mothers of World War II.

Survivors include four sons, Willard, Clifford and James, all of Kokomo, and Wallace of Akron O.; two daughters, Mrs. Marion (Mary) Barber, Washington, and Mrs. Kenneth (Cora) Shott, Marion; ten grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Additional survivors are two sisters, Mrs. Willard (Olive) Moore, Kokomo, and Miss Ina Stout, Chicago, Ill.

Friends may call at the church one hour preceding services.