

Wincel Trueblood

Wincel (Whitie) Trueblood, 61, 1024 E. North St., died in St. Joseph Memorial Hospital at 11:30 p.m. Wednesday following a short illness.

Born in Washington County, Jan. 9, 1905, he was the son of Joseph G. and Sereva (Huckleberry) Trueblood.

An employe of the Continental Steel Corp. since 1927, he worked there in the plant protection department.

He has been a member of the Masonic Lodge No. 93 since 1936 and served as an elder in the Northview Christian Church.

Surviving with the widow, the former Lura Burnworth, are a daughter, Miss Janet Sue Trueblood, at home; six sons, David T. Trueblood, at home; Encil L., Marvin C., and William W. Trueblood, all of Kokomo; Petty Officer John A. Trueblood, serving with the U.S. Navy, and the Rev. Robert D. Trueblood, Claypool.

Other survivors include six brothers, Grandle, Farris, Willard, Charley and Reid Trueblood, all of Kokomo, and George Trueblood, Ambia; two sisters, Mrs. Cletus Coombs, Fowler, and Mrs. Lela Hartlip, Ambia, and nine grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Peacock Funeral Home with the Rev. Rodger Murray officiating. Burial will be in the Albright Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 2 p.m. Friday. The family prefers memorial contributions be made to the cancer society.