

BUGHER, Rosie

Jan. 20, 1922 - Aug. 6, 2006

Rosie Bugher, 84, Kokomo, went to Heaven to be with the Lord and her loved ones at 11:12 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 6, 2006, from Elizabeth Ann Seton Hospital, Kokomo. She was born Jan. 20, 1922, in Kokomo, the daughter of Joseph and Maria Dana Buttice. On March 30, 1946, in Kokomo, she married Homer K. Bugher, who preceded her in death Jan. 24, 2002.

Rosie was a 1941 graduate of Kokomo High School. She was a homemaker who loved and lived for her family. She was a wonderful and loving person who always had a kind word for everyone. She enjoyed time spent with some very special friends and a special niece that loved her and she loved very much. She looked forward to time spent with her great-grandson, Korey, and enjoyed the companionship of her daughter that she spent the last four years with. Rosie enjoyed dancing, rides in the car, going for ice cream, playing "Cars" on the front porch with family and visits from her pet squirrel, "Sweet Pea," who she watched out her kitchen window.

She is survived by one son and daughter-in-law, Jerry and Robin Bugher, Kokomo; two daughters and one son-in-law, Connie Callis and Diana and Steve Trine, all of Kokomo; a son-in-law, Joe Fivecoate, Kokomo; 11 grandchildren and their spouses and 15 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, one daughter, Carolyn Fivecoate; two brothers, Jimmy Buttice and Tony Buttice and his wife Lois; several sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law and nieces.

Funeral services will be 10 a.m. Friday at Shirley & Stout Funeral Homes - Grecu Chapel, 414 W. Jefferson St., Kokomo, with Pastor John Hrynk officiating. Burial will follow in Crown Point Cemetery. Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home.
