

BRUNETTA FOWLER

Dec. 9, 1923 – Aug. 2, 2005

Brunetta Fowler, 81, 2905 W. Sycamore St., passed away 2:50 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 2, 2005, at Sycamore Village Healthcare Center. She was born Dec. 9, 1923, in Pennsylvania, a daughter of Randolph Tyler and Della B. Williams.

She was a homemaker and a member of Second Missionary Baptist Church. She was a long-time community activist, who was very concerned with the advancement and fair treatment of her people.

She is survived by her nieces, Marsha Jackson of Kokomo and Diana Swindell of Columbus, Ohio; a sister-in-law, Corinne

Brunetta Fowler

Tyler of Kokomo; a special niece and caregiver, Stacy Humes; and a host of nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, Kenneth Fowler; her parents; one daughter; two brothers; one sister and one nephew.

Services will be 11 a.m. Saturday at Second Missionary Baptist Church, 818 N. Apperson Way, with Pastor Robert A. Lee as the officiant and eulogist. Burial will be at Crown Point Cemetery. Calling will be 10 a.m. to service time Saturday at the church. Arrangements were entrusted to Bluit & Son Funeral Home.