

David Heflin

TAVARES, Fla. — David Albert Heflin, 79, 1505 Orange Ave., formerly of Kokomo, died at 7:45 a.m. Sunday, June 18, 2000, at his residence. Born Feb. 1, 1921, in Lebanon, Ind., he was the son of Callie Christopher and Lelia Edith (Lewis) Heflin. On April 27, 1946, in Dayton, Ohio, he married Regina Louise Dumoulin, who survives.

David Heflin

He graduated from Kokomo High School in 1939. He was an airplane engine mechanic in the Army Air Corp. during World War II. He retired from Haynes Stellite in 1974, where he was in chemical analysis. He also worked at Kokomo Tube as a afternoon supervisor. He then worked as manager of Izaak Walton League, retiring in 1978. He was a member of St. Paul's Catholic Church in Leesburg, Fla., and had been a member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church while living in Kokomo. He was also a member of the Izzak Walton League.

Surviving are his wife; five daughters and three sons-in-law, Cynthia L. and Dennis G. Stover, and Sharon K. Clark, all of Kokomo; Donna D. and William C. Hale, Tavares, Fla.; Theresa A. and Mark Shea, Feeding Hill, Mass.; Susan E. Heflin, Leesburg, Fla.; three sons and daughters-in-law, Thomas D. and Cynthia J. Heflin, Robin L. and Karen Heflin, and William R. and Kathy Heflin, all of Kokomo; 15 grandchildren, James M. Stover and wife, Karen; Sandy L. Thatcher and husband, John; Christi Hale; Andi Hale; Travis Heflin; Sean Heflin and his wife Stephanie; Troy Heflin, Matt Shea; Benji Clark and wife Cindy; Tony Clark; Jessica Clark; Corey Heflin; Tyler Heflin; Bailey Heflin and Madison Heflin; seven great-grandchildren, Smantha Stover; Justin Thatcher; Jonnah Thatcher; Breanna Heflin; Morgan Clark; Tyanna Tyler and Lano Tyler; two sisters-in-law, Phyllis Jean and Marjorie Heflin. He was preceded in death by four brothers and two sisters-in-law, Richard, Robert, John and Phil Heflin and Bonnie and Imagene Heflin.

Services are 11 a.m. Thursday with a Mass of Christian Burial at St. Patrick's Catholic Church, 1229 N. Washington St., Kokomo. The Rev. Frank Kilcline will officiate. Burial will be in Crown Point Cemetery. Friends may call from 4 to 8 p.m. today at Eilers Mortuary, Webster Street Chapel. 3400 S. Webster St.

Burial Thursday, June 22, 2000
Book 8 Page 26
Lot 26 Section 21
Cement vault