

Jean Minor

Jean Earline "Sissy" Minor, 40, 1326 S. Geneva Ave., Marion, died 7:51 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 12, 2002, at Marion General Hospital. She was born Nov. 26, 1961, in Marion, the daughter of J.C. Sr. and Annie L. (Stitts) Barnett.

She was a graduate of Kokomo High School and graduated from Indiana University in Bloomington in 1984, majoring in political science. She was shift manager assistant for one year at McClure's Inc. in Marion. She had previously worked for six years in maintenance at DaimlerChrysler Corp.

Jean Minor

She was a member of Second Missionary Baptist Church and enjoyed crocheting, reading novels, crossword puzzles and movies.

Survivors include her parents, J.C. Sr. and Annie L. (Stitts) Barnett; her former husband, Jeffrey Minor Sr., Kokomo; a stepson, Jeffrey Minor Jr., Kokomo; two daughters, Jehanien Minor and Ayriel Minor, both of Kokomo; a stepdaughter, Marquita Minor, Kokomo; one brother and sister-in-law, J.C. Lee Jr. and Janet Barnett, Kokomo; a sister and brother-in-law, Joyce Ann and Anthony C. McDonald Sr., Kokomo; her stepgrandmother, Lula Gutierrez, Marion; one grandchild, and her great-grandmother, Florene Crum, Tipperville, Miss.

Services are 11 a.m. Saturday at Second Missionary Baptist Church, 818 N. Apperson Way, with Dr. Robert A. Lee, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Crown Point Cemetery. Friends may call 4 to 8 p.m. Friday at the church. Arrangements are being handled by Bluit & Son Funeral Home, 511 E. Monroe St.

Burial Saturday, October 19, 2002
Book 8 Page 131
Lot 141 Section 21
Cement vault