

Mary Overstreet

Mary A. (Fulton) Overstreet, 89, Kokomo, died at her residence Friday, July 13, 2001. She was born Oct. 16, 1911, daughter of Virgil and Carrie (Mundy) Fulton of Sheridan. On Aug. 8, 1931, she married Lillard Overstreet who preceded her in death Nov. 18, 1989.

She graduated from Sheridan High School. The Overstreets owned and operated the Overstreet Candy Co. in Kokomo and served the surrounding area for many years.

Mary Overstreet

Mary always extended a welcome to her home and was willing to be a help to others. Several times she shared her home with those in need until they could get on their feet again.

She is survived by six brothers, John Fulton, Noblesville, Paul Fulton, Sheridan, Lawrence Fulton, Frankfort, Clarence Fulton, Jamestown, Tenn., George Herbert Fulton, Indianapolis, and James Fulton, Westfield. She is also survived by four sisters, Florence Stern, Delphi, Martha Mullins, Sheridan, Dolores Summitt, Kokomo, and Bertha Robinson, Noblesville. She was preceded in death by two sisters, Esther Shaffer and Ruth Michael; and one brother, William Lincoln Fulton.

Although Mary had no children of her own, she had many nieces and nephews who lovingly called her Aunt Mary.

Services are 10 a.m. Monday at Eilers Mortuary, Main Street Chapel, 725 S. Main St. Officiating will be her brother, the Rev. James Fulton. Interment will be at Crown Point Cemetery. Friends may call from 2 to 6 p.m. Sunday at the funeral home.
