Clara M. Hanson Dies at New London

Clara M. Hanson, 77, died at 5 o'clock Monday morning at her home four miles west of New London of heart trouble, which had been troubling her for over two years.

She lived for 50 years on a farm near New London, coming there when she married Arthur Hanson. Last March 21 the two celebrated their fiftieth anniversary at their home. She was born in Park county in 1864.

The husband survives with a son, Vincent L., and two grandsons, Warren and Dale. A sister resides in Minneapolis, Minn.

She was a member of the Friends church of New London, where her funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Burial will be in the New London cemetery. The Rev. Mr. Walters will officiate at the funeral. Friends may call at the home any time after 10 o'clock in the morning Wednesday.
