

MARILIA A. Obituary.

After a long and painful sickness the immortal spirit of Mrs. William H. Harrison, of New London, took its celestial flight from earth and its scenes of care and sorrow Tuesday afternoon at 6 o'clock. She struggled hard against the tide of disease and death, and hoped to live for the sake of the little prattlers that called her mamma, but she became resigned to the stern decree that would have it otherwise and passed away with a bright hope of a blest immortality. Mrs. Harrison was the eldest daughter of the late Oliver Young, of Ervin township. She leaves a husband and four children to mourn her loss. The funeral was conducted Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at New London. Interment in the New London cemetery. In the loss of this, their earthly friend, the husband and children have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

June 6-22 1886

Source:

Publication Date: