KENWORTHY.

At her home, 1½ miles east of New London, Monday, Hannah Stout-Kenworthy wife of Milton Kenworthy, died, aged 33. The deceased during her life enjoyed and extended acquaintance in Monroe and Harrison townships and was well beloved for her high womanly qualities and many Christian virtues. Her husband and three children survive her. Services were held at the Friends' church, New London, Tuesday and interment was had in the burying-ground of that sect.

Last Monday Hannah Kenworthy died at her residence one and one-half miles north-east of New London of that fatal disease consumption. She bore her affliction calmly, having fought the good fight of the righteous and gained the victory; and she now wears the crown and carries the palms in her hand. She leaves a husband, two sons, and two brothers to mourn her loss. They have the sympathy of all.
