

William M. Kile

RUSSEVILLE (Tribune Area Special) — William M. Kile, 80, died in St. Joseph's Hospital at 3 p.m. Wednesday, where he had been a patient the last two weeks.

Born Oct. 28, 1878, in Clinton County, he was the son of Asa and Madora (Foster) Kile, and had spent all his life in the West Middleton community. He was married Dec. 11, 1897, to Gertrude Kanable, who preceded him in death on May 22, 1958.

Surviving are one son, Jay, of Russiaville; one daughter, Mrs. Lowell Ward of Bringham; two sisters, Mrs. Della Kidder of Kokomo and Mrs. Charles Turner of Russiaville; one brother, L. M. Kile of Kokomo; three grandchildren and one great-granddaughter, Susie Kile of Russiaville. Two brothers and one sister are deceased.

He was a member of the West Middleton Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday in the West Middleton Methodist Church, with the Rev. Leroy W. Ping in charge. Burial will be in New London Cemetery. d. 8-5-1959

Source: Kokomo Tribune

Publication Date: