

Jesse H. Parse

DELPHI—Jesse H. Parse, 76, Delphi, died at 10:50 p.m. Monday, June 20, 1977, in his home.

Born Oct. 28, 1900, in Carroll County, he was the son of O.H. and Martha (Abston) Parse. He was married Feb. 16, 1928, to Marie Hobson, who died Nov. 14, 1958. He was married Dec. 3, 1964, to Emma S. Sheets, who survives.

He was a retired farmer and a member of Delphi United Methodist Church. He was a former member of the Howard County Farm Bureau. He was a former resident of western Howard County and Lake Wales, Fla.

Also surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Myron (Alice) Maish of Russiaville; a step-son, Charles A. Sheets of Falls Creek, Pa.; three sisters, Mrs. Mary Ticen of Frankfort, Miss Ruth Parse of Frankfort and Mrs. Vera Slayback of Kokomo; and eight grandchildren. A brother preceded him in death.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Thursday in Stout Funeral Home, Russiaville, with the Rev. William Shewman officiating. Burial will be in New London Cemetery. Friends may call after 2:30 p.m. Wednesday.