

196-4 196-4
ANNA M. STAFFORD DIES AT HER SHERIDAN HOME

Mrs. Anna M. Stafford, 84, died at 7:30 a. m. Aug. 29, at her home in Sheridan. She had been in ill health for the past four years.

Short services were held at the home Tuesday and the body was then brought to the New London Friends church where services were held with Rev. Edward Linton of Hortonville Friends church officiating. Burial followed in the New London cemetery.

She was born May 6, 1870, in Illinois and on March 6, 1895, she married Frank Stafford, who survives with one son, Willard, Sheridan. Another son, Herbert, died in May, 1905.

Mr. Stafford is a Friends minister and he and Mrs. Stafford served as pastors in many Midwest communities including Russiaville, West Middleton and New London.

Source: Kokomo Tribune