

Samuel M. Wilson Expires Saturday

RUSSEVILLE (Tribune Area Special)—Samuel M. Wilson, 76, died at his home in West Middleton at 12:30 p. m. Saturday of heart attack. Sept. 12, 1953

Born near West Middleton May 17, 1877, the deceased was the son of Henry Noble and Katherine (Pence) Wilson. He married Cora Utley Feb. 20, 1901. She survives with the following seven children:

Mrs. Gladys Bates, Mrs. Arthur Burton, Merrill and Sam Wilson, all of Kokomo; Mrs. Max Turner, Russiaville; Mrs. Estel Thomas, West Middleton and James Wilson of Cincinnati. There are 16 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren.

Mr. Wilson was a Spanish-American War veteran and a member of the Odd Fellows at Kokomo.

Funeral services are to be held at the West Middleton Friends Church at 2 p. m. Tuesday with burial to follow in New London Cemetery.

The body was returned from the Stout and Son Funeral Home to the family residence, Sunday afternoon, where friends may call.