

Brothers services

Services for Paul B. Brothers, 79, 3103 Vinton Circle, will be at 10 a.m. Monday in Eilers Mortuary with the Rev. James Barton officiating.

Burial will be in North Union Cemetery. Friends may call from 2 to 4 and 6 to 9 p.m. Sunday.

He died at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 22, 1976, in St. Joseph Memorial Hospital, following a 12-day illness.

Born Aug. 27, 1897, in Michigan, he was the son of Frank and Mary (Savage) Brothers. He was married in 1969 to Eva Oldfather, who survives.

He was formerly employed by Good-year Tire Co. in Wabash and was a member of Zion Lutheran Church in Wabash.

Also surviving are four step-daughters, Mrs. Donald (Rita) Rubow, Mrs. Karl (Sue) Leisure, Mrs. Troy (Linda) Strange, all of Kokomo, and Mrs. Richard (Helen) Spice of Fort Wayne; three step-sons, Sherman Shelby, Clifford Shelby and George Shelby, all of Kokomo; a brother, Charles Brothers of Saginaw; a sister, Mrs. Irene Chesler of Gaylord, Mich.; 28 step-grandchildren and eight step-great-grandchildren.

Source: Kokomo Tribune

Publication Date: