

OBITUARY.

Near the going down of the sun on March 21, 1903, at the home of her uncle, Marjon Gannon, passed out the life of Minta Diller gently and peacefully to the silent shore.

Minta was the daughter of James and Sylvia Diller; she was born March 22, 1890. Had she lived but one more day she would have reached the age of eighteen years, just the age when there is so much in life.

Minta was a sweet, gentle disposition child, whom to know was to love. She was generous, true, and noble, always greeting every one she met with a smile.

Altho Minta had not yet placed her name on the church book, but we feel sure it had been written in the Lambs Book of Life. She has always loved the dear old Sabbath school and was so touched and interested in the past revival that her near friends have no doubt that her peace had been made with God.

Among those who are left to mourn her loss is her widowed mother, one sister and a brother; her father and a baby brother preceding her to the other shore.

Minta's favorite friend on earth aside from her mother, was her aunt, Rett, who never tired caring for her in afflictions hours, but she was doubly repaid by the sweet words from Minta: "I love you, Aunt Rett."

In the social circle of the Bethel neighborhood there will be a vacant chair that will long be remembered as Minta was a favorite and a friend to all.
