

Richard Dillon

Richard D. Dillon, 65, 7452 W. Road 400 North, died at 9 a.m. Sunday, Jan. 31, 1999, at Methodist Hospital, Indianapolis. Born Nov. 5, 1933 in Kokomo, he was the son of Jack and Billie Dillon. He was the husband of Elaine Wilson, who survives. They were married Feb. 20, 1953.

Dillon

He retired after 40 years of farming, and 37 years as a school bus driver for Northwestern High School. He was in the Korean War, serving with the U.S. Marine Corps. He attended St. Luke United Methodist Church. He was an active bowler in the Merchants League at Cedar Crest Bowling Lanes.

Surviving are four daughters and sons-in-law, Diana and Darrel Fontenot, Lake Charles, La., Connie and Tom Blankenberger, and Nancy and Vic Kugley, all of Kokomo, and Teresa and Tracy Webb, Fort Wayne; two sons and daughters-in-law, Steve and Beth Dillon, and David and Cara Dillon, all of Kokomo; two sisters and brothers-in-law, Ruthanne and Bill Wright, Elkhart, and Judy and Don Wilson, Grand Rapids, Mich.; 10 grandchildren and one great-grandchild, four stepgrandchildren and two step-great-grandchildren.

Preceding him in death was a grandchild.

Services will be 10 a.m. Thursday at Murray Funeral Home. The Rev. Harold Williams will officiate. Burial will be in North Union Cemetery. Friends may call from 2 to 9 p.m. Wednesday at the funeral home. Memorial contributions may be made to Dick Dillon Scholarship Fund in care of Northwestern Foundation.