

3-29-1879 Salina ERVIN, March 26.
 There has been three deaths in this vicinity since last week: Mrs. Malaby, widow of the late Wm. Malaby, was interred last Saturday, at Union cemetery; also on same day and place, John Edwards, of lung fever; and last Tuesday, John Malaby was buried in the same cemetery. J. H. Miller's school closed last Saturday. Prof. Arthur is teaching singing school at Judson. He has a large class.

1879, 3-29 ERVIN Tn., March 25.
 John Malaby, son of Wm. Malaby, deceased, died yesterday. John Edwards died the 31st last. Sickness seems to be on the increase. John H. Miller closed his school last Friday, giving his scholars a grand treat of peanuts and candy to close the program. The schools of Ervin township have all closed with the exception of H. C. Miller, who will close this week.
 B. B. LOW.

Source:

Publication Date: