Obituary.

Elizabeth Jane Hartgrove, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Hartgrove, was born March 19, 1851, in Ewing, Virginia, at which place she lived with her parents until she was married at the age of 19 years. On April 22, 1870, she was united in marriage to Joseph Marion Ely. To this union thirteen children were born, three of whom died in infancy. In the year 1869 her parents and brothers and sisters pioneered to Indiana, settling near Miami. Her husband preceded her in death thirty-six years. After nine years of striving faithfully to keep the children together she left the five oldest children in Virginia and with the five youngest children moved to Kokomo in the year 1905. She kept the family together until they were all married, after which she made her home with her youngest son, Reuben, at 3111 North Buckeye street, Kokomo. Early in life she gave her heart to God and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church South in Ewing, Virginia. In the fellowship of the church she found a place for service and was always happy in God's house, being faithful until the end. On January 28th she finished her work and became contented to rest until Jesus came. When the call came she looked up and said, "The Lord is drawing nearer." She departed this life to live with Jesus, January 28, at 7:30 p. m., at the age of 80 years, 10 months and 7 days. She leaves to mourn their loss, five daughters and five sons: Mrs. Louiza Yeary, Patten Ely and Andy Ely, all of Ewing, Virginia; Mrs. Charity Edds of Whiting, Kansas; Mrs. Cynthia Snodgrass of Harlan, Kentucky; Mrs. Susie Leslie of Newcastle, Pa., and Mrs. Lizzie Richey, Charley Ely, Robert Ely and Reuben Ely, all of Kokomo; also thirty-six grandchildren, fifty-four great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild, and a host of friends.
