

JAMES FLETCHER

Sept. 28, 1937 - Jan. 22, 2003

James T. "Jimmy" Fletcher, 65, Kokomo, died 2:20 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 22, 2003, at Howard Community Hospital. He was born Sept. 28, 1937, in Delaware County, the son of Ethel (Laughner) and Vernon Fletcher.

He worked at Cuneo Press as a general operator for 16½ years and then worked for World Color Press in Merced, Calif., for seven years. He also sold real estate in the Kokomo area from 1977 to 1981.

He is survived by three sons, Steven Fletcher, Walter Fletcher and his companion April Sparks, and Clarence and wife Melissa Fletcher, all of Kokomo; and five grandchildren, Kimberly and Katlin Fletcher. James Fletcher Rogersville, Tenn., Taylor, Nicholas and Brooke Mealer, all of Kokomo. He was preceded in death by his parents and a grandson, Dakota Scott Fletcher.

Graveside services are 12:30 p.m. Monday at North Union Cemetery in Howard County, with the Rev. Larry McClain officiating. Burial will be in North Union Cemetery. Public visitation is not scheduled. Ellers Mortuary Main Street Chapel is in charge of arrangements.