MYRON E. GANNON.

Myron E. Gannon, 83, a life-long resident of Ervin township, died unexpectedly at 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning while seated in his car not far from home. He had driven to the home of a granddaughter for milk and was returning when stricken with a heart attack.

Surviving with the widow, Mrs. Laura Wilson Gannon, are a sister, Mrs. Ella Gilbert, southwest of Kokomo; two grandchildren, Mrs. Clarence Redding of Ervin township and Mrs. Kathleen Cole of Sharpsville; one great-grandchild and four stepchildren, Mrs. Clarence Merrill, Mrs. Pearl Blangy and Mrs. Crystal Elleman of near Kokomo and Mrs. Elva Bustamante of South America.

The body is at the Stout mortuary at Russelville, pending funeral arrangements.
