

James Lipinski

RUSSEVILLE, Ind. — James S. "Jim" Lipinski, 42, 167 S. Liberty St., died 8:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 23, 1987, in his home.

He was born Jan. 11, 1945, in Russiaville, a son of John and Esther (Kelly) Lipinski. April 23, 1965, he married, Cathy J. Combs, who survives.

Also surviving are four sons, Jeffrey S., Jason S., Jeremy S. and Jacob S. Lipinski, all at home; his mother, Esther Branch of Torrence, Calif.; four brothers, Dawane Lipinski of Albany, N.Y., John and Richard Lipinski, both of Kokomo, and Thomas Lipinski of Russiaville; four sisters, Patricia Randall, Millie Paul and Kay Mickelson, all of Kokomo, and Cynthia Nehl of Russiaville.

Lipinski had lived here all of his life and was a member of Main Street Christian Church here. He had owned and operated Lipinski Super 98 Station here for 12 years.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday in Russiaville Main Street Christian Church. The Revs. Ron Waggoner and John Jefferies will officiate. Burial will be in Russiaville Cemetery. Friends may call from 4 to 9 p.m. Friday at Stout & Son Funeral Home here. The body will lie in state one hour before services at the church Saturday.