

John F. Colvin

John F. Colvin, 83, 1006 N. Morrison St., died unexpectedly at 8 p.m. Thursday shortly after arrival in the St. Joseph Memorial Hospital.

Born April 29, 1888, in Elizabethtown, he was the son of Robert and Mary (Dottorff) Colvin. He had lived in Kokomo for 40 years. KT 14 May 1971 p.5

On Sept. 15, 1914 he was married to Rose Ratz, who survives.

For 16 years he had worked with the Division of Labor for the State of Indiana. A carpenter, he had been self-employed and was a member of the Carpenters Local Union 734. He was also a member of St. Patrick Catholic Church.

Surviving with the widow are three sons, Ambrose (Mike) Colvin, Indianapolis; James Colvin, Detroit, Mich., and Paul Colvin, Perrysburg, Ohio; three sisters, Mrs. Lola Welcher, Atlanta, Ga.; and Mrs. Minnie Harper and Mrs. Inez Weindell, both of Phoenix, Ariz.

Funeral Mass will be offered at 10 a.m. Saturday in St. Patrick Catholic Church with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Arthur Sego officiating. Burial will be in Sunset Memory Gardens Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Elfers Funeral Chapel between 6-9 p.m. Friday. The Rosary will be recited there at 7 p.m. Friday.