Mary Elizabeth Crook, 78, 137 S. Forest Drive, died at 3:13 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 28, 1986, in Howard Community Hospital.

Mary
Crook

She was born June 2, 1908, in Carroll County, the daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Clark. Dec. 22, 1934, she married Kenneth W. Crook, who died Jan. 15, 1985.

Crook was a 1930 graduate of Manchester College and had taught English and Latin at Kokomo and Haworth high schools until retiring in 1974. She was a member of Kokomo Church of the Brethren, Howard County Retired Teachers Association and Tri Kappa Sorority.

Surviving are two sons, Kendall and Kevin Crook, both of Indianapolis; and six grandchildren. A brother preceded her in death.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Monday in Ellers mortuary. The Rev. Mark Bendes will officiate. Entombment will be in Sunset Memory Gardens Mausoleum. Friends may call from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday at the mortuary.

Memorials may be made to Kokomo Church of the Brethren or Indiana Retired Teachers Foundation in Indianapolis.
