

Vance Holcom

Vance "Jack" Holcom, 77, 1608 W. Alto Road, died at 2 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 8, 1984, in Howard Community Hospital.

He was born in Somerset, March 23, 1907, a son of Orl and Minnie (Drook) Holcom. Oct. 5, 1940, he married Mary Bennett, who survives.

A veteran of World War II, Holcom was a retired mechanic. He had lived in Somerset and Kokomo most of his life and was a member of Kokomo American Legion and Western Howard County Conservation Club.

Also surviving are a stepdaughter, Mrs. Paul (Evelyn) Heltzel of Kokomo; a brother, Garl Holcom of Orangevale, Calif.; two sisters, Margaret Schooley and Mrs. Lee (Evelyn) Cook, both of Converse; two stepgrandchildren; and four stepgreat-grandchildren. Several brothers and sisters are deceased.

Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in Stout and Son Funeral Home in Russiaville. Entombment will be in Sunset Memory Gardens. Friends may call after 3 p.m. Friday at the mortuary.